

Comptroller Thomas DiNapoli at today's press conference as he announced the results of five years of school audits across the state that the Office of the State Comptroller recently completed.